

Hello Faithful Fans,

This worksheet is intended to go along with my book Penelope Rose. Even if you don't have a copy of my book, there is a free read along on my YouTube Channel "CM Healy."

Answer the questions below. Remember sometimes you might have to make a good guess, and that's okay.

1. Who is the main character of the book? How do you know?

2. How is Penelope Rose like other pigs? How is she different?

3. Who are concerned for Penelope Rose? Why do you think they are concerned (worried)?

4. On the page with Penelope at school, what evidence in the illustration tells you the other students were making fun of her?

5. Based on the picture and the phrase "teases and jeers," what do you think jeers means?

6. Why do you think the bullying didn't bother Penelope?

7. Has there ever been a time you were teased or bullied? What did you do?

8. What did Penelope decide to do? How did she accomplish her task?

9. What words describe how Penelope felt flying and how she flew?

10. The english language can be tricky sometimes. There are words spelled with silent letters, like “whistle” (silent T) and “write” (silent W). There are several words throughout this story like that. How many can you find?
